OFFICIAL BIO

Beth Ann Ziarnik is an avid fan and author of romantic suspense. Her debut novel earned her the “Writer of the Year” award at the Write-to-Publish Conference in 2016 and the “Selah Award for First Novel” at the Blue Ridge Mountains Christian Writers Conference in 2017.

Before that, Beth authored more than 450 published articles and devotionals, two columns, and pieces in six anthologies such as Prayers and Promises, Armed Forces, and Writing So Heaven Will Be Different. She co-founded Word & Pen Christian Writers in Northeast Wisconsin and is also a long-time member of American Christian Fiction Writers.

Beth completed fiction writing courses with Writer's Digest School and Christian Writers Institute (now under the American Christian Writers Assn. umbrella). She graduated from UW-O in 1969 and is an experienced teacher of high school English, speech, and journalism.

In addition to writing romantic suspense, Beth teaches a women's weekly Bible study and speaks to women's, writers and readers groups. She makes her home in Oshkosh, Wisconsin.
